Toagosei Co., Ltd.

Increase in the Price of Sulfuric Acid

Toagosei Co., Ltd. hereby announces that it has decided to increase the selling price of the following product and has entered into negotiations with its customers.

1. Product Subject to Price Increase
Sulfuric acid (oleum, concentrated sulfuric acid and dilute sulfuric acid)
2. Amount of Price Increase
4 yen per kg or more
3. Effective Date
Products shipped from September 1, 2022
4. Background
The costs involved in manufacturing and selling the above product have risen due to the sharp increase in the price of raw fuel and the price of its main raw material of sulfur. That has led to a deterioration in business profits.

We have endeavored to cut costs by reducing manufacturing costs, decreasing expenses and improving the efficiency of distribution. Nevertheless, with costs expected to continue rising in the future, we have reached the conclusion we have no choice but to revise the product price to maintain stable production and supply.
